

LOCAL NEWS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—War Department, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington, D. C., Nov. 7, 1876—10:30 a. m.—For the Middle States falling barometer, south and east winds, veering to southwest, cloudy and rainy weather followed in the Southern portions by rising barometer and clear weather.

THE ELECTION.—The election in this city today has been one of the quietest ever known here. Notwithstanding this quietude, however, there has been a heavy vote cast, and the most intense interest is manifested by all classes of our people. The weather, which during a large part of the day has been raw, damp and disagreeable, did not seem to dampen the ardor of the adherents of either side, and canvassing was active. At 3 o'clock this evening the vote stood as follows:

	White.	Colored.
First Ward.	408	170
Second Ward.	287	161
Third Ward.	310	379
Fourth Ward.	310	379

In the 31 ward the names of the white and colored voters were kept together, and the difference could not be ascertained. The total vote in that ward at the hour named was 1073.

Y. M. C. A.—At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Y. M. C. A., held last night, in the room of the Association, on King street, to make arrangements for the carrying out of the recommendations of the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association, relative to the observance of a week of prayer, commencing on Sunday, the 12th inst., there were present: A. J. Fleming, esq., Chairman, and Bro. D. Stallings, Secretary, and Messrs. H. W. Bodie, E. F. Witmer, Wm. A. Moore, J. E. Entwistle, E. E. Corbet, and W. U. Roberts.

After religious exercises, the Chairman stated the object of the meeting, and read the recommendations of the International Committee.

It was resolved that the week of prayer be observed by this Association, and that the recommendations of the International Committee be carried out as far as possible.

The General Secretary was directed to send every minister of this city a copy of the recommendations, with the request, if they met with their approval, to present a sermon to the young men of the city, on Sunday next, or some other convenient time.

It was requested by the committee that all the members of the Association be present at a general union meeting, to be held at 4 o'clock on Sunday evening next, at which time there will be some special exercises.

It was decided to hold a daily noon-day prayer meeting in the room of the Association, from last past twelve to one o'clock, commencing on Monday next.

It was also decided to hold a general union meeting, on the M. P. Church on Wednesday next, 15th inst., and all the churches and societies of the city were requested to unite with the Association in that meeting, in prayer for a blessing upon their work.

After the transaction of some other business of no public interest, and prayer for the blessing upon the services to be held, the committee adjourned.

KNIGHTS TEMPLARS.—The arrangements for the meeting of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templars, in this city, on the 15th inst., are nearly all completed. Decorations for the banquet hall and for the numerous public buildings are being prepared, and everything is being done to give the Sir Knights a cordial welcome. Our Dominion Commandery of this city, have received their badges, which are decidedly among the handsomest ever seen here. They are of white silk, bearing the name and number of the Commandery, and a vignette representing a Templar armed cap à pique, and wearing the white cloak of the Order, standing before a cross, while in the sky above appears a crown, with rays of light irradiating from it, below which is the motto "Eradice ad omnem." In the background appears a camp, with the Templar flag floating over it.

SERENADE.—The Washington Herald says: "On Thursday evening a party of gentlemen from this city and Alexandria, under the leadership of Prof. A. S. Roe, proceeded to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Merriam, on R street, and delighted that worthy couple with a serenade. After the rendition of several waltzes they were invited into the parlors and entertained in the usual hospitable manner of their host. Among those present were Messrs. Buchanan, Daniels, Mace, Risenbaum, McBurney, Grimes, Wishart, Stuart, Stewart, and the Messrs. Richardson. A substantial collation was discussed about midnight, after which the "farewell" chorus was sung, and the guests departed, delighted with their entertainment."

KEEPING THE SABBATH.—An employee on one of the down river boats, while lying over at a landing on Sunday, took his gun and started out for a hunt. After going a short distance he was ordered to leave a field, on the ground that the owner could not allow gunning on Sunday. He immediately obeyed, but was somewhat surprised, when a few minutes afterward, he saw the Sabbath keeping farmer hunting over the boat for sale. He cannot see the difference between the two works so far as the observance of Sunday is concerned.

ACCIDENT.—Eugene Taylor, a little son of Mr. Matis Taylor, who resides on Fairfax street, near P. line, while attempting to swing on the rear of a carriage passing his father's residence, this afternoon, had his leg caught in the wheel and was thus violently to the ground, receiving severe injuries. Dr. French was called in and rendered the necessary surgical attendance.

MUTINIOUS SAILORS.—Two sailors named Clark and son and Frederick Harber, belonging to the schooner, Florence L. Lewis, now lying at the American wharf, were arrested this morning on the complaint of their captain for mutinous conduct and refusing to do duty. They were locked up in the station house where they will remain until their vessel sails.

RADICALS MEETING.—The Radicals held their last meeting at the colored Old Fellows' Hall, on South Columbus street, last night, the weather being too inclement to allow of an open air meeting at the corner of Duke and Washington streets, as was intended. Speeches were made by L. W. McKnight, T. B. Pugh, R. L. Mitchell, and Robert Gaines. The audience was composed almost entirely of negroes.

MEETING LAST NIGHT.—The campaign in Alexandria was closed last night by a large and enthusiastic meeting at Septima Hall, which was presided over by ex-Mayor K. Kemper. President of the Central Union and Democratic Club. The meeting was addressed by ex-Mayor Hugh Latham, General Fitzhugh Lee, and George F. P. Wallace, of Orange, all of whom were loudly applauded.

ALEXANDRIA CANAL COMPANY.—The Board of Directors of the Alexandria Canal Company held a meeting at the Council Chamber yesterday evening. The only business transacted was the appointment of J. M. Jones, esq., as attorney for the company, vice Capt. D. L. Snoot, removed from the city.

John Curran, the owner, and his two brothers Tom and William, who are also in prison were here and raised in this city.

Local Brevities.

While the one o'clock train to day, from Washington for this city, was coming from Maryland avenue, a negro passenger fell between two cars, and would have been mangled to death, but for the prompt action of a bystander, who pulled him out by the collar of his coat.

The schooner S. M. Ward, which sailed from the American wharf, has on board a pigeon which alighted on the vessel when seventy-five miles off the coast, during the recent easterly gale. It has become quite tame, and refuses to leave.

As will be seen by notice elsewhere in today's Gazette tickets are now on sale at French's for the last grand Centennial excursion. Tickets, which are sold at $4.25 each, are stamped on the day of sale, and are good for ten days from that date.

Mr. M. Rubin has, at his restaurant, on Fairfax street, one of the most complete oyster saloons in the shape of a figure of a Boat Butler, ornamented with two figures, and ingeniously arranged to walk along the counter.

Six or eight white men, from Washington, were arrested at the 4th Ward polls last afternoon, for disorderly conduct, on complaint of Messrs. O'Neal and VanAken.

Business meetings of the First and Fourth Ward Tilden and Hendricks Clubs were held last night, and various preliminary arrangements for the election to-day were perfected.

SCRIPTURAL.—"Simmons' Liver Regulator is certainly a specific for that class of complaints which it claims to cure. Of its beneficial effects we do know something; and, from personal experience, it is our opinion that its virtues have not been exaggerated by the many flattering notices in the press. If any of our fellow-citizens are suffering from hepatic disorders, and have doubts in relation to the efficacy of this popular preparation, we can only offer them the simple and candid argument of Philip to Nathaniel, 'Come and see.' Try the proposed remedy, and then you can judge for yourselves."

REV. DAVID WILLS, President of Oglethorpe College, and pastor of Presbyterian Church, Macon, Ga., Prof. University of South Carolina.

J. Q. A. Haddaway, esq., of "Episcopal Methodist, Baltimore, Md., writes: "With much pleasure I testify to the good effects of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in my family. Have used it in many cases, and in each instance the result was entirely satisfactory."

When such men as James Entwistle sell Wells' Barba for the teeth you can rely upon his being first class.

The Election.

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 7.—The weather is cloudy and w. m. The voting is active. Slight disturbances have occurred at two polling places. On the Congressional ticket the democrats are polling a heavy vote but the republicans seem satisfied. An increased democratic majority is looked for in this city and county.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 7.—The election is proceeding briskly considering a heavy rain which is so much needed that it adds an element of cheerfulness. Returns from the several wards in this city at 11 o'clock show about 2,679 votes cast with a majority of 1,070 for Hayes, the constitutional amendments are probably all defeated.

WILMINGTON, N. C., Nov. 7.—The election here is progressing very quietly. The large vote is being polled and both sides are working hard. The democrats claim that they will carry the State by four to ten thousand, and the republicans claim they will carry it by a small majority. The basis of comparison will be the gubernatorial vote of 1872, when Caldwell, R. repub., had 1,825 majority.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 7.—Up to this hour, 1:15 p. m., no election through out the city has been conducted with the utmost quietness and good order. A very heavy vote is being polled.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 7.—11:30 a. m.—The weather is clear and cool. Business is entirely suspended. The election is progressing smoothly throughout the city, and the utmost peace and quiet prevail.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Nov. 7.—The election is progressing very quietly, and the indications are that a full vote will be polled. The chief interest centres in the gubernatorial race. The republicans are voting solid for Thomas, the independent democratic candidate for Governor, and the indications are that he will carry the city.

AUGUSTA, GA., Nov. 7.—The election in this city is quiet. Up to 12:30 there were about two thousand votes for Tilden and six hundred for Hayes.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The election, both here and in Brooklyn is proceeding quietly. No disturbances being reported up to noon. A number of arrests for rioting have been made. The vote at noon stood 7,700 against 5,200 at the same time last fall.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The unfavorable weather does not seem to interfere with voting in this city. A large vote is being cast, and business is at a stand still. Half the first town in eastern Massachusetts gives Hayes a 32, Tilden 24, Rice 11, and Adams 25. A large vote is being polled in Boston and the indications at present are that he will be elected over both competitors, though Judge Hoar is receiving some unexpected support.

WORCESTER, MASS., Nov. 7.—The election is progressing with spirit. A heavy rain has no effect on the voting. The ward rooms are all crowded, and a very large vote is being cast. On the Congressional vote both parties are solid, with but little scratching. Rice keeps well up to his ticket.

THE WEATHER.
NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Signal Service bulletin of observations taken at 7:47 a. m., today, shows the weather throughout the country as follows: In Alabama, clear and cool; Arkansas, clear and cool; California, clear and cool; Colorado, clear and cool; Connecticut, rainy; Delaware, cloudy and threatening; Florida, cool and fair; Georgia, cloudy and light rains along the coast; Illinois, fair and cool; Indiana, clearing and cool; Iowa, cloudy and cool; Kansas, clear and cool; Kentucky, clear and cool; Louisiana, clear and cool; Maine, rainy; Maryland, clearing up; Massachusetts, rainy; Michigan, cloudy and cool; Minnesota, clear and cool; Mississippi, clear and cool; Missouri, clear and cloudy; Nebraska, clear and cool; Nevada, fair and cool; New Hampshire, rainy; New Jersey, cloudy; New York, rainy on the coast, cloudy on the interior; North Carolina, cloudy and rainy; Ohio, cloudy and rainy; Oregon, cloudy and cool; Pennsylvania, threatening at Philadelphia, cloudy at Erie and Pittsburgh; Rhode Island, rainy; South Carolina, cloudy; Tennessee, fair and cool; Texas, clear and cool; Vermont, rainy; Virginia, cloudy at Norfolk; Wisconsin, fair and cool.

The temperature of Black River, Minnesota, this morning, reported zero.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—An easterly storm prevails here. All interest centres on the election.

The Late cardinal.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—A Paris special says: The Pope was greatly affected by the suddenness of Cardinal Antonini's death. The latter was, by direct order of the Pope, carried to an adjoining apartment. The Pope arrived at his own physician, but upon the arrival of the doctor, all hope was declared gone. The sacred rites were then performed by the dying cardinal, and the Pope retired for a short time to another part of the palace. His Holiness, however, again visited the sufferer before going to his bed and remained by his side for some time administering comfort and consolation, and upon leaving, as the hour was late and His Holiness almost ill himself, he gave the dying man the benediction, in articulo mortis.

Fatal Affair in Boston.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—A one o'clock this morning some members of a political club attempted to break down the door of the premises of Adam Horn Jurena Plains in order to procure liquor. Horn fired into the crowd, killing Wm. Fournier, and wounding several others.

Drowned.

QUEBEC, Nov. 7.—A large man, named John Wright, of John Wright, jr., and James Bredon, were drowned while passing in a boat from Ellis Bay to English Bay, Anticosti.

New Orleans Election.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 7.—A special from New Orleans, dated this night, says: This evening all the democratic clubs were ordered to rendezvous at the Sheriff's office, where they were being sworn in as special deputies by Sheriff Waggaman, Democrat. They numbered from six to seven thousand.

The regular monthly meeting of the Hydraulic Steam Fire Engine Company will be held to-night, at 7 o'clock.
